if you are one of those girls that when they're bored they like to draw, paint, invent envelopes, and find out the different kinds of I dots you can make, this book is for you. This book has an explosion of imagination and creativity I liked it vey much is HIGHLY recommended

I loved this Book. Its filled with so many great ideas. It kept me entertained for hours. I would recommend this book for any one that llikes Art. I'm American But I live in Spain and I've introduced American Girl to all my Spanish Friends And they liked this American Girl book the most. You will not regret getting this book.

If you want you child to write more and not complain about it, this book is for you. Don't miss it! A fun and engaging journey for any child (and certainly this adult!). The ingenuity behind making writing fun for children is outstanding. Kudos Laura and Valerie!

This book was one of the most Clever books I have ever read! It has all sorts of things to do with letters. Even though I couldn't really do most of the activities, it was very interesting to read! There are awesome examples to show you how to spice up your stationary, add some creativity to your words, and even some secret messages you can do! This is a fantastic book! You ought to buy it!

i have this book and letter art and i use them together to make magnets and bookmarks to sell. i even helped a friends mom write names on waterbottles for their basketball team!

Artistic American Girls are sure to be engaged in this spiral bound book. From ways to change up your lettering, to paper capers,top secret, writing from the road,super stationary, and even getting in your last word. Cartoon notebook instruction makes the book even more fun.
