Customer Reviews

Our granddaughter, a dancer, has read all the books in this series, and has loved them all. They all have such a nice little lesson about getting along and treating others well worked into the stories. Thanks to Whoopie for writing them!

I have bought this whole series for my first granddaughter and she couldn't wait for each one to come out. Have now started my 2nd granddaughter on her own copies as well. The stories are interesting and easy for even beginning readers to understand as well as keeping the teen one wanting more. Thank you, Ms. Whoopie !!!!

I didn't know that she wrote books until few months ago..My daughter wants to be a doctor to take care of me because I have arthritis in my knee and back, now she wants to be a ballet dancer..anything that my baby wants to do or be can happen..

My daughter is 13 and enjoys reading these books. She take ballet so she can relate to the characters. She reads these for fun.

This was an awesome book that thought a really good lessonI kinda wish it was a little longer but still loved it:)

Bought the 6-book set for three avid young readers/dancers for Christmas and that is all they have talked about. Highly recommended for 7-10 year old girls who dance and love to read.

GD opened this on Christmas Day. She started reading it immediately. "Nuf said! This is always my goal when giving a book.
