Customer Reviews

I buy books instead of cards for birthdays and had intended on this to be my son's bday book/card. Turns out it's a coloring, activity sticker book. So instead of making it his bday card I am saving it for his party. Inside the book are several pages that can be torn out and given as bday cards to others. I'm going to let his guest sign the cards on the inside of this book and let him do the activities after the party and put it up as a keepsake. Hope that idea helps someone else looking at this book for a birthday gift.

Bought it as a gift for a 3 yo. Seems age appropriate and it does contain lots of stickers and various activities in the booklet to keep him occupied. Of note, booklet is flimsy which cheapens the look of the product imo.

I thought this was a birthday story book. It is mostly stickers with birthday cards your child can make.

We got this book for my sons birthday, so that way everyone who came could sign it, He loves reading it at night before he goes to bed. Such a great read and cute little book

Very cute Thomas story about his birthday. My granddaughter loves anything to do with birthday celebrations. She loves to read this book over and over.

The Birthday Express was one of the gifts purchased for grandson's third birthday.

Bought this as a gift, it was well received by the birthday boy!

My grandson totally loved this, Great for all Thomas fans
