Customer Reviews

This book was for my autistic granddaughter. She is 16 and can read at about a 2nd grade level and is non verbal. She certainly does know who Taylor Swift is. Our Juliette took the book to bed with her. Hard to find books that interest a teen who can't read at a teen's level. Thank you for asking.Audrey Forbesam4bz@msn.com

Perfect for my daughters age , 7, and she got an A on her report!

This book is a great book for kids at that level, but does not have almost everything about Taylor swifts life.it only talks about she loving music.still this was a good book and bio about Taylor swift.

My five-year-old daughter absolutely loves Taylor Swift, and since she is learning to read in kindergarten this year this book was a no-brainer. She loves it.

This was wonderful for my 10 year old, it was way too easy but she is the biggest Taylor fan in the world so she didn't care.

I'm not a huge Swift fan. My 7 year old wanted this book. She likes it. It has a good message about not giving up.

My daughter loves Taylor swift and this was good for her since she is a beginner reader.

It's just not that good of a story...could totally be better...I was disappointed
