Customer Reviews

I bought this book for my 6-year-old son. I have a collection of these small books in a bag that we take to restaurants to help ease the wait time. My son told me that this book is way to easy for him (he's in kindergarten) and that he much prefers word search books. So, if your child is age 3-5, this book would probably keep him or her quite entertained. Much older that that, however, this book is probably not for your child.

My 5-yr-old nephew loves mazes. These are just challenging enough to keep him interested yet not too difficult. Cute book appropriate for ages 4 to 6.

This book was for my 4-year-old granddaughter. She was very excited and pleased with it as was I. It offered her reasonable challenges and she was happy when she finished the mazes successfully.

I bought these for my Niece to do. She was so excited she sat down and did almost the whole book. It took her a few hours she only 4. But a smart 4. There are some easy mazes and some harder ones. I think she enjoys the challenge. I am so glad I bought the collections of about 7 of them Dover Little Activity Books. 6 Mazes and 1 Dot to Dot.. All the mazes had different themes to them. But I think were animal related. So I will continue to purchase their activity books for her and my nephew in the future.

Our 5 year old granddaughter is working on mazes in Pre-K (her birthday is 11/15th and by law she had to be 5 by 9/1st) but she is working on kindergarten level. She has sight words and she is beginning to read (in January '14 she will be tested and possibly move into kindergarten. This tiny book is perfect for her and she just loves it. To preserve it copies have been made and she works on them while riding in the car. It is small enough to fit in the glove compartment/purse (it can make long waiting time bearable. :-)

These books are much smaller than I thought they would be. Around 4 x 6 inches I would guess. This actually worked out as I bought them for my granddaughter to use on and airplane so they did not take up much room.

I purchased these books for my grandson, he loves them and learns a few things in the process of figuring out the mazes. They help keep him occupied when ever we have to wait for appointments, while flying etc.

Just wish I had realized the maze books I bought were going to be so small. They'll be great for my grandsons bookbag to keep him occupied on the bus ride to and from school, but I thought he'd be able to color it in...nice little books, next time, will find regular sized books though.
