Synopsis

Another great and fun book from Geronimo Stilton. If you want to know what happened on his quest to the Kingdom of Fantasy, you will have to read this book. You will find yourself not wanting to put this book down once again just like all the other G.S. Books. My kid finished this without moving an inch as soon as it arrived.

My son thinks that Geronimo Stilton poops rainbows. I'm told that this is the creme de la creme of Geronimo Stilton books so, naturally, he lusted after it like a 90s preteen over Melrose Place. Got it, read it, still loves it. Good buy.

My son is 9 years old and has been reading these for over a year. They are a brilliant way for young readers to develop a love of reading and nurture their imagination. The pictures are so engaging and my son is constantly running in to show me and tell me what's happening. My son went from being a VERY reluctant reader to a boy who devours books faster than I can keep up. He now reads more advanced chapter books but still goes back to these over and over.

Great read. My son loves these series of Stilton books. Once he starts to read it cannot put it down. This book captures his imagination. Great series. I had him wrote a book report to show that he understood the book and did well. Great series to get your children into reading.

Have bought three books each for my grandsons for Christmas can't wait for them to get these books come on Christmas. Both of them are avid readers of the author i almost want to read the books to see y the boys love them. I trust my grandsons in what they like so FIVE STARS all the way

Got this book for my grandson to add to the series he has and he really liked it. He likes the way a lot of the words are colorful and sometimes in different fonts. He can't wait for the next one to come out.

Son was happy when he got this. He loves Geronimo Stilton!
