Customer Reviews

These cards stand out because they give attention to detail. There is a list of base movements to reference. Also, they specify where to pivot in signs with movements. We purchased other signing cards that had vague pictures to mimic. The whole series of these cards are worthwhile.

I have a special needs almost 4 year old,very useful product,even for "normal" children.I recommend these to any child with autism,spectrum disorder or behavioral problems! These have helped my daughter more than words can say,second purchase from seller,always on time.

Fantastic!!! My baby LOVES these flash cards. From about 14 months on she was actively seeking these cards out & mastering the signs that I modeled easily, on account of the clear illustrations.

Wish there were more of these!

these are fantastic. Easy to read and understand. My son is a 7 year old autistic child and he has already memorized every card in this box. Also have the spanish saying printed on each card. Very handy.

I love the Sign2Me flashcards. These are the only cards I have seen that have the 3 languages of our nation - English, Spanish, and American Sign Language. In the sign language classes I teach - the children just love them. I bought some as gifts for clients children which the parents say was one of the best gifts they have received. I had one client send me a video tape of her child playing with the cards and making every sign on the card, it was so cute. A very good investment, not only is it teaching signs but give you an extra language. Studies have proven that teaching children languages develops their brains. I highly recommend these cards.[...]

wow!! this are very easy to use, my 20mo boy loves them, they are well made, a great all around product, I was more amazed on how my boy payed attention to me as I was showing him the animals and the hand gestures, I think that my boy will learn super quick cause he really pays attention and he likes them!! I am glad cause I don't want him to watch cartoons all the time!! happy parent!!Parents go for it, easy to use and learn!!
