Malala: A Hero For All (Step Into Reading)

Synopsis

This Step 4 Biography Reader shares the inspiring story of Malala Yousafzai, the youngest recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. Even as a young girl in Pakistan, Malala spoke up about the importance of girls' education, via speeches and a blog. Since the Taliban regime was intent on denying girls an education and silencing anyone who disagreed with their laws, this was very dangerous. Malala was shot, but she survived the attack and it did not silence her. In fact, she spoke at the United Nations on her sixteenth birthday, just nine months after she was shot. Malala's resolve has only magnified her voice, delivering her message of human rights to millions of people. Step 4 Readers use challenging vocabulary and short paragraphs to tell exciting stories. For newly independent readers who read simple sentences with confidence.

Customer Reviews

This was an interesting story of courage and faith. I would highly recommend it to especially young female readers. Bravo!!!

My daughter just began reading Ebola at six years! History is a favorite subject. She loved the book! We recommend it!

This is an age-appropriate story about how one girl is making a difference in the world.

Great introduction to the life and times of Malala.

My 7-year-old daughter loved this!

Great book. Amazing person.

Good ever!!!!
