Customer Reviews

This is a level 2 reader for kids that read with help. You will find words like 'booyakasha'. Funny that since my son watches the show he knew to correct my pronunciation on that word. The story is simple and interesting. We have read the other level 2 TMNT readers (Pizza Party! (Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles) (Step into Reading) and Too Much Ooze! (Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles) (Step into Reading)), so my son read this with help for the longer words. When he is more familiar with the story he'll be able to practice reading by himself. Which is why I like these - great pictures, interesting story: kids will practice their words and reading for fun. The book is 24 pages long. The stickers at the end are part of the fun. This story is not really violent or scary. At least my son didn't think so - he is 5. There are pictures of an ice dragon, a lizard-like alien and a cute friendly robot. There's some fighting and a nice happy ending.

binding broke after reading it twice....

good book to get kids to read

Great for my 4 year old.

My students liked it, but what's not to like about TMNT. It was a good book to read together with my beginning readers.

cute story but in general these level 2 reading books have few words in them, just a short sentence per page.

I purchased this as a gift for my 3 year old nephew and he absolutely loved it!
