Customer Reviews

The pictures are engaging while the information is just enough for young children. It is perfect to teach text features.

Beautiful pictures, nice dictionary in the back with many long words and definitions. Fact filled.

Engages the child in American history.

I used this book with my preschool classes and they loved it! It tells about the Liberty Bell in simple language and great pictures

It is perfect for the Kindergarten standards on American Symbols. The pictures are big and the words are simple.

Grandson loves bells...was fascinated with this book. Easy reader. (only a few pages...but all he needed)

This was a good book to use with USA unit for Kindergarten. It was to the point and easy to understand.

This was a wonderful book to use in our American Symbols unit!

This not having all the info for kids
