Customer Reviews

If you like "I Like Me" by Nancy Carlson, then you will love "A B C I Like Me!"! It is a great way to build a child's self-esteem, while teaching them the alphabet. The illustrations will keep young children interested until the end. I recommend it for children ages 3-6.

My son, who is 19 months old, recently received this book as a gift. He absolutely ADORES it! He asks us to read it to him over and over again. We have scores of children's books in our house and he has not responded to any of them the way he has to this book. I think he likes the book because of its simplicity. Each page features a colorful illustration and a short self-esteem-building message related to each letter of the alphabet (for example, "A, I am awesome! "B, I am brave!"The listing recommends this book for children aged 4-8, but the book itself lists the recommended ages as 2-5. I would definitely recommend this book for a 2 year old child and even those who are younger. I would consider it a bit too simple for a child over 5.

I chose this book because the children sign up to take I Like Me home. I was not surprised to see them making the title their own as an expression after successfully tossing 6 beanbags in the hat or after a high 5...The books I buy are added to the classroom copies or replace a worn tattered classroom copy. I want them to READ!

They really enjoyed the book, and the pictures. It is better suited to per-k or early Kindergarten but the kids liked it and I was able to do some simple hands on writing prompts I made to go with it. Overall a success!

I honestly don't know what it is about this book, but my 3 yr old chooses it all the time. It just had one short sentence for each letter? So it is a quick read. At the end the pig is a superhero who "zooms on" and my daughter just loves that!

This is a nice book that has a different view of putting words to letters by using feel good words. "Feeling good about me is as easy as ABC". A I am Awesome, B I am Brave. Helps build self confidence.
