The best series of stories for little ones! Nice that the TV show coordinates so your child is familiar with the characters. The stories in this series are always fun and geared perfectly towards this age group. There is not violence and any conflict is handled so well, with lessons for both children and their parents. Years from now, we'll look fondly on the memories of our little one's early years with Daniel Tiger's Neighborhood, where a sense of friendship and community, tolerance, and love are celebrated and not criticized. Thanks to the legacy of Mr. Fred Rogers we have a continued opportunity to expose our children to these important life lessons.

I love everything Daniel Tiger stands for so his books we really enjoy! I grew up with Mister Rogers neighborhood and once I discovered Daniel Tiger is the animated part of his legacy company I bought most the DVDS and books I could find. When searching for Easter books I saw Daniel Tiger had a book so I decided to buy it and a few other books my son likes. I know the moral of the stories always have a good message in them so I am very happy buying them. I plan to buy the 3-4 books that will be released in May coming out as well. If you like what Daniel Tiger stands for add this book to your collection!

My 18 month old had been OBSESSED with DT for six months now. She LOVES the episode where Duckie hatches. Which is not even an episode. It's a segment in between scenes. But I'm so glad someone figured out that scene is toddler entertainment gold and put it into book form. It blew my baby's mind to see her favorite tv show novelized. She enjoys and picks this book often for nap and bed time. Definitely with it. I do like that it's the right amount of text and the pictures lose no detail. Great book version of a classic DT moment.

This book is a little more wordy than the other Daniel Tiger book we own (Happy Love Day), but my toddler did not get bored with it. It highlights the waiting episode pretty well. My son recognized the similarities instantly. If your child loves Daniel Tiger as much as mine does, they will enjoy this book.

Perfect addition to my daughter's Easter basket!

Daniel Tiger is the best!

It met my expectations. Delightful story of Daniel and his friends waiting and waiting and waiting for the egg to hatch. Shares things one can do when you have to wait.

Daniel Tiger books are always a favorite for my granddaughter. She has a summer Birthday as I plan on giving it to her then.
