Customer Reviews

We love this collection. I wish there were fewer tiny, stick-someplace- else stickers. We prefer the ones that go in the book. My 2-year-old likes to place it in the right "shape" and loses interest when we are left with tons of stickers that don't go anywhere...

These National Geographic sticker books are fantastic. Perfect for a 3 year old (with help from mom and dad) who loves to learn about animals. We love to use them as a 15 minute learning activity to do together with our son. We have loved their easy directions on each page, the facts about each animal, and the corresponding activities that go with each section. I started with this particular farm book and have now collected all in the series. Great great learning tool and fun activity for kids!

my 2 year old granddaughter loves this book, an adult must be present to help though, but that's the point...an activity to do with grandma or an older sibling

My grandkids love these National Geographic kids sticker books!

My great grand daughter loved this...had hours of fun with it.
