Customer Reviews

One-star reviewers, y'all understand that this is a book for illiterate children, right? It comes as a board book, and you're clamoring for narrative structure? Got to manage those expectations.

this book WORKS! When I first bought it I said "if jimmy fallon wouldnt have wrote this, it wouldn't have even been published! There's like 20 words in the WHOLE book and at least half of those are DADA." But I bought it for father's day anyways and my daughter LOVES IT! and so does her dada! She's 18 months old and will grab the book and take it to her dada, chanting "dada" the whole way! Even when he's not home she will pick it up and search the house for him to read it. Mama isn't allowed to read it! lol Its great and definitely worth the money!disclaimer my baby had already started speaking before we bought the book, so her first word was technically momma,,, BUT had we got it before, i totally believe her real first word would have been dada

This book is really simple but adorable. Every page is a different animal daddy trying to get their baby to say "dada". I find the illustrations of the frustrated fathers really cute. Got this for my husband for Father's Day.

We love this book! Very simple but the pictures are adorable and it gives us a chance to work on animal sounds with our daughter. Now when we say "Dada" she says "Moo" and crawls to the book. It's so cute!

I can't imagine "reading" this to my children. There isn't a story to it at all, which for my sanity, I need when all I want to do is crash into my own bed. The illustrations are very cute and it is fun to look through, but not what I expected.

I expected this book to be cute and funny with Jimmy Fallon as the author, but the illustrations are also beautiful. It will delight children and adults alike. We have enjoyed this book and I think it would be a terrific gift for Father's Day especially for a new father. It's very relatable as well to the often fought battle to get your child to say your name first!

Such a simple book from America's favorite Tonight Show host, but my 10 old daughter adores it...as does her "Dada" who received the book from us for Father's Day!

I was somewhat disappointed with this book when I realized that it was just a bunch of animals saying, "dada." However, the illustrations are cute, and my son and I have had fun making animal sounds. This was partly my own fault for not having read reviews before buying.
